Expedited Publication Yes No

The processing fee for expedited publication is US$60 per page. The accepted manuscript(s) for expedited publication with payment will be arranged next issue for typesetting and publication, which will not depend on the L&H Scientific publication budget. The author(s) has his/her own responsibilities on typesetting, press and handling fees. The expedited publication of the accepted manuscript is a traditional subscription publication, which will not be an open access publication.

Total Price (US$): _____

Traditional Publication Yes No

The processing fee for traditional publication is free for up to 12 pages. The author(s) does not pay any publication fees for less than 12 pages. The publication fee will be paid by the publisher publication budget. If too many accepted papers are in backlog, the traditional publication of the accepted manuscripts may be delayed for one or two years, which are strongly dependent on the publisher publication budget and accepted papers backlog. Over 12 pages, the author(s) is required to pay handling fees for extra pages with $100 per page.
